1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to

1 discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends 2 only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment 3 under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth 4 in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to 5 file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the 6 procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party 7 seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

8       1.2    GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

9           This action is likely to involve confidential information pertaining to jail 10 operations and safety procedures, personnel records, and other materials subject to 11 privacy and proprietary safeties for which special protection from public disclosure 12 and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is warranted.
13 Limiting disclosure of these documents to the context of this litigation as provided 14 herein will, accordingly, further important law enforcement objections and interests, 15 including the safety of personnel and the public, as well as individual privacy rights 16 of plaintiffs, the individual defendants, and third parties. Such confidential materials 17 and information consist of, among other things, materials entitled to privileges 18 and/or protections under the following: United States Constitution, First 19 Amendment; the California Constitution, Article I, Section 1; California Penal Code 20 §§ 832.5, 832.7 and 832.8; California Evidence Code §§ 1040 and 1043 et. seq; the 21 Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552; Health Insurance Portability and 22 Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA); the right to privacy; decisional law relating to 23 such provisions; and information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or 24 which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or 25 federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Defendants also 26 contend that such confidential materials and information consist of materials entitled 27 to the Official Information Privilege.

1       Confidential information with respect to the Defendants may include but is 2 not limited to: jail floorplans, security measures, and policies and procedures related 3 to the operation of the jail; personnel files; internal investigative files and 4 documents; email and written correspondence records; coroner's records and 5 reports; police department policies and procedures that are kept from the public in 6 the ordinary course of business, as well as other information that is not generally 7 available to the public and is subject to the Official Information Privilege and other 8 privileges. Confidential information including City and private personal financial 9 records; email and written correspondence records; video footage and/or 10 photographs of the incident including potential disclosure of third-party proprietary 11 video viewer software; private information related to non-parties, and psychological 12 and medical notes, evaluations, reports, and treatment plans.

13       Testimony taken at a deposition may be designated as Confidential by making 14 a statement to that effect on the record at the deposition. Arrangements shall be 15 made with the court reporter transcribing the deposition to separately bind such 16 portions of the transcript containing information designated as Confidential, and to 17 label such portions appropriately. Confidential financial, personal, and personnel 18 information, photographs, video or audio footage obtained through the course of 19 discovery or otherwise may not be used for any purpose other than litigating this 20 lawsuit. The parties agree to refrain from directly or indirectly disclosing or publicly 21 disseminating confidential financial information, deposition testimony, jail 22 operational information and security information, personnel information, and/or 23 photographs, video or audio footage obtained through the course of discovery or 24 otherwise, specifically including, but not limited to, dissemination via billboard 25 advertisements, print and online media organizations, or any other internet posting 26 or social media. If any party intends to use such confidential materials for any 27 purpose other than litigating this lawsuit, the party seeking public disclosure must 28 first seek approval from the Court.

1        In light of the nature of the claims and allegations in this case and the parties'
2 representations that discovery in this case will involve the production of confidential 3 records, and in order to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt 4 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately 5 protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the 6 parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in connection with 7 this action, to address their handling of such material at the end of the litigation, and 8 to serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this 9 matter. The parties shall not designate any information/documents as confidential 10 without a good faith belief that such information/documents have been maintained 11 in a confidential, non-public manner, and that there is good cause or a compelling 12 reason why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

13

14        2.     DEFINITIONS

2 of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 24 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) 25 and their employees and subcontractors.

26           2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 27 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

1           2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
2 Material from a Producing Party.

3
4           3. SCOPE

5           The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 6 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or 7 extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 8 compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 9 presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

10          Any use of Protected Material at trial will be governed by the orders of the 11 trial judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

12
13          4. DURATION

14          Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 15 imposed by this Order will remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 16 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition will be 17 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with 18 or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 19 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 20 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 21 pursuant to applicable law.

22
23          5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

24          5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.
25          Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under 26 this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 27 qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 28 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written

1 communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, 2 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 3 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

4 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 5 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper 6 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose 7 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating 8 Party to sanctions.

9 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it 10 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 11 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

12 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 13 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise 14 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 15 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 16 produced.

17 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

18 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, 19 but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that 20 the Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter 21 "CONFIDENTIAL legend"), to each page that contains protected material. If only a 22 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 23 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 24 markings in the margins).

25 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for 26 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has 27 indicated which documents it would like copied and produced. During the 28 inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for

1 inspection will be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has 2 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must 3 determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this 4 Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must 5 affix the “CONFIDENTIAL legend” to each page that contains Protected Material.
6 If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 7 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 8 appropriate markings in the margins).

9                   (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identify the 10 Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of the deposition all 11 protected testimony.

12                   (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 13 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 14 exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the legend 15 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 16 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, will identify the protected 17 portion(s).

18       5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 19 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive 20 the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
21 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 22 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 23 Order.

25       6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

26       6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 27 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s 28 Scheduling Order.

1       6.2    Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party will initiate the dispute
2 resolution process (and, if necessary, file a discovery motion) under Local Rule 37.1 3 et seq.

4       6.3    The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding will be on 5 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper 6 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 7 parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating 8 Party has waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties will 9 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is 10 entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the 11 challenge.

12

13     7.     ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

14     7.1    Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 15 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 16 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 17 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 18 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a 19 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 20 DISPOSITION).

21       Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 22 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 23 authorized under this Order.

24     7.2    Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 25 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 26 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 27 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

1                         (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 2 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably 3 necessary to disclose the information for this Action;

4                         (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of 5 the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

6                         (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 7 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 8 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

9                         (d) the Court and its personnel;

10                         (e) court reporters and their staff;

11                         (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 12 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 13 signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

14                         (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 15 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

16                         (h) during their depositions, witnesses ,and attorneys for witnesses, in the 17 Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party 18 requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they 19 will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the 20 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise 21 agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed 22 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may 23 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except 24 as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and 25                         (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, 26 mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification will include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification will include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the subpoena or court order will not produce any information designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The Designating Party will bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

(a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the

1 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 2 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

3 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 4 produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 5 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's 6 confidential information, then the Party will:

7 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 8 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality 9 agreement with a Non-Party;

10 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 11 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 12 specific description of the information requested; and 13 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 14 Non-Party, if requested.

15 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 16 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party 17 may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 18 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party will 19 not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 20 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court.
21 Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party will bear the burden and expense 22 of seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

23
24 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

25 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 26 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 27 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 28 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts

1 to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or 2 persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, 3 and (d) request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and 4 Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

5

6 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
7 PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 9 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 10 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 11 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever 12 procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production 13 without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and 14 (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a 15 communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work 16 product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated 17 protective order submitted to the court.

18

19 12. MISCELLANEOUS

20 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 21 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

22 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 23 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 24 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 25 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 26 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

27 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 28 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may 1 only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the 2 specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material 3 under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information 4 in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

5

6 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

7 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60 8 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return 9 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in 10 this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 11 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 12 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 13 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same 14 person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies 15 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or 16 destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 17 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any 18 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to 19 retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 20 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert 21 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such 22 materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 23 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 24 Section 4 (DURATION).

25 14. Any willful violation of this Order may be punished by civil or criminal 26 contempt proceedings, financial or evidentiary sanctions, reference to disciplinary 27 authorities, or other appropriate action at the discretion of the Court.
